Supporters take to the course for Adoption Network Cleveland mini-golf event

Outing proceeds will support programs and services for families, adoptees, birthparents

CLEVELAND (September 13, 2018) —Friends of Adoption Network Cleveland: The Ohio Family Connection will kick off fall with a fun-filled fundraiser for all ages. Proceeds from the Mini-Golf Outing (Sept. 23) will benefit the organization’s ongoing work of improving the lives of individuals and families in the community impacted by adoption and foster care.

“We are excited about providing a fun afternoon at Sweeties Golfland for our friends, members and supporters, while also earning vital funds for our programs and services,” said Betsie Norris, Executive Director of Adoption Network Cleveland. “It should be a great day!”

This is the second year Adoption Network Cleveland and b.a. Sweetie Candy Company will partner for a fundraiser in support of local families and individuals who rely on the organization’s services and programs.

Opened in 2012, Sweeties Golfland has two 18-hole miniature golf courses that offer a mix of challenging and fun holes on its 1-acre course, which includes a new 10,000-gallon fish pond, 30-foot castle, vine-covered bridge and a natural park setting.

- WHAT Adoption Network Cleveland’s 2018 Mini-Golf Outing
- WHEN 2-5 p.m on Sunday, Sept. 23 (Rain date: Sept. 30)
- WHERE Sweeties Golfland, 6770 Brookpark Road, Cleveland, Ohio 44129
- WHY Funds raised will help Adoption Network Cleveland, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, provide advocacy, education and support for adoptees, birthparents, adoptive parents, kinship families, prospective adoptive parents, foster youth and parents, foster care alumni, and professionals.

COST $30 for adults and $20 for youth. Under 3 are FREE. Pre-registration by Wednesday, Sept. 19, is required for this event.

HOW To join in the fun, register online by Wednesday, Sept. 19, at bit.ly/MiniGolfANC or call (216) 325-1000 for more information.
